We are delighted to announce that Caversham Education Institute is offering
THE ARTS IN TEACHING & LEARNING
A six module professional development short course!

Who Caversham?

Caversham Education Institute is a fully accredited Service Provider offering two NQF level 5 qualifications, The Higher Certificate and National Diploma in ECD in 4 regions in KwaZulu Natal and in Cape Town. The Institute works in close collaboration with the mother organisation Caversham Centre that has an enviable history of 27 years of contribution to the arts in South Africa and abroad. We are passionate about inspiring individuals to become inspirational and to use creativity and the arts to empower and transform lives.

What is this Caversham Course all about?

This short course explores exciting, innovative ways to use drawing, painting, collage, printmaking, modelling and group work in the classroom to enrich children's learning.

Who should do this course?

Anyone who shares our passion for the education and care of young children and believes that their work is important and does make a difference, particularly those who are teaching children aged 2 to 9 years (preschool to Grade 3)

How long will it take?

The course is six modules and is offered weekly, either on a weekday afternoon or on a Saturday morning.

Why should I do the Caversham Arts Course?

This course is stimulating, fun and packed full of excellent ideas to apply in the classroom. It is structured so that you will network with other teachers and

- Develop your own creativity and art skills
- Increase your knowledge of using the arts in the Learning Programme
 - The Daily Programme
 - CAPS in the Foundation Phase
- Explore and gain skills in using different art techniques with learners

What do I require to participate?

All you need is a passion for becoming a more effective, creative teacher and to commit whole-heartedly to the course. You will receive a file, notes, materials and refreshments

How much does it cost?

The course costs R 250 per workshop or R1500 for the course.

How do I apply?

You fill in the attached Registration Form and scan and email it to caversham@telkomsa.net or fax it back to 086-6931185

There are limited places so please let us know as soon as possible!
